ADDITIONAL INFORMATION:

Terms and Conditions

The term 'College' refers to 'Rayners College London' and 'you' or 'your' refers to the applicant submitting the application form to the College.

1. Non-EU Nationals must enrol within 10 days of the start date of your course as stated on your offer letter to comply with student visa restrictions. The College will refuse admission to anybody who arrives later than this date and will inform the UK Border Agency of students failing to enrol by this date.
2. EU Nationals must enrol within 2 weeks of the start date of your course as indicated on your offer letter as student visa restrictions do not apply. The College reserves the right to refuse admission to anybody who arrives later than this date
3. Upon enrolment you must agree and abide by College regulations. These are available to view upon request. You will also be required to produce original translated (if required) documentary evidence of all prior qualifications and immigration status.
4. The College will use all reasonable endeavours to deliver courses as advertised in the prospectuses, website and by other media. However, in certain circumstances it may be necessary for the College, at short notice, to withdraw certain courses or make variation to the courses offered. Variations or withdrawal may be necessary as a result of lack of demand, lack of key personnel, timetable considerations and change in Government policy, this list is not exhaustive. Where this is necessary the College does not accept liability for any loss of whatever nature caused as a result of such withdrawal and/or variation.
5. Whilst the College makes every effort to ensure that information provided is accurate and up to date at the time of publication, it can accept no responsibility for any errors or omissions of course details and any other information.
6. Rayners College London has used the information supplied by you to issue your offer letter which will be used to support your VISA application Rayners College London does not accept any responsibility, financial or otherwise, should you not be granted a visa, whether as a result of your letter or for any other reason.
7. Published tuition and other fees stated are correct at the time of going to press but subject to inflation and other price fluctuations. The College reserves the right to alter fees from the prices stated.
8. Estimated living expenses have been compiled after consultation with international students and are offered only as a guideline to assist students in planning their budget. The costs on which they are based depend on local economic factors which are subject to change as well as an individual's own circumstances and requirements.
9. Non-EU students are required to pay a tuition deposit, as detailed in your offer letter. EU students are required to pay fees upon receipt of invoice (30 days after enrolment). You are required to keep to any agreed payment schedule in order to maintain your place at the College.
10. You must pay your tuition fees by the due date agreed in your payment schedule. If you do not pay your access to College facilities such as the Library and Computing will be blocked. If you still do not pay after this blocking within a reasonable timeframe set by the College at its sole discretion, you will be excluded from the University, which means that you are no longer a student. This information will be passed onto your sponsors and the UK Border Agency. You will not be able to return to your studies or receive your award until you have paid all sums due as agreed by the College and subject to compliance with the UK Border Agency regulations.

11. Tuition fees quoted are subject to change in the years following your initial enrolment. Should it be necessary for you to repeat the year or re-sit an exam in a different year, the university reserves the right to apply the rate applicable for new enrolling students in that academic year.

12. Refunds are subject to the terms and conditions within the current (academic year) International Students Refund Policy, these are available upon request and may be subject to changes, variations and updates from time to time.

13. Before commencing your proposed course you are responsible for ensuring that you have sufficient funds or income to cover both tuition fees and living expenses as indicated in your offer letter. Rayners College reserves the right to rescind an offer of a place on a course if it transpires that you enrolled knowing that you had insufficient funds for your proposed course of study and living expenses.

14. If using an agent, you are required to advise us in writing if you wish to change agent during the course of your application.

15. To the extent permitted by law neither the College or its subsidiaries shall accept any liability for any loss or damage of whatever nature which may be suffered by other parties as a direct or indirect result of your application process.

ON OFFER LETTER

If you have previously studied in the UK prior to joining Rayners College, you must provide details of any study undertaken, including results and copies of visas held. You should also inform us of any courses you have failed or failed to complete for any reason. Failure to disclose this will result in visa refusal or withdrawal of our sponsorship of your study in the UK.

Any offer of a place which you may receive is made on the understanding that in accepting it you have read and understood the rules and regulations of Rayners College and by signing this form you are confirming your agreement to them. Any false information provided, misrepresentation or omission in information may lead to the withdrawal of any offer made by the Rayners College.

DATA PROTECTION ACT 1998

The information which you give on your form will be used for the following purposes:

- To determine your eligibility for entry to Rayners College London and/or its subsidiary or partner institutions.
- To enable Rayners College and/or its subsidiaries to compile statistical reports.
- To enable Rayners College and/or its subsidiaries to initiate your student record.
- To share information with government departments including, but not limited to, the Home Office, UK Border Agency, UK Embassies, local authorities and other bodies in connection with VISA applications, fraud prevention, and to enable them to carry out their statutory functions.
